NOTE. No one with a grain of sense can, for a moment, suppose that the Wichita women were so foolhardy as to expect, in their first experience, to select, nominate and win a passing earthly stetory, but we have proven to a perverse and ungodity generation that when our cruel elder brothers left the doves in the wilderness of politics to starve, that our Father would not permit his little ones to perish, as do our brothers, the ravens, through postoned bat.

200 We believe that in the new administration dawning, such a healthy public sentiment will prevail that when next, the high and honorable position of mayor is to be filled, 620 that the worthy candidate may live his oe-620 that the worthy candidate may live his be-lief in his daily life, neither will be fear to speak it, if necessary, in his daily conversa-

We believe also that when next the honor-1800 able position of city offices in the first city in the state are to be filled, the presence of thoughful women will not be ignored nor their friendly comes! rejected. We believe that when next the women of Wichita are called upon to act they will neither be the dripe or tools of designing men. We had selected, without the knowledge of a single man, men who fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness, and we trust that some if not every man may be elected. We are withing to be called fools for truth's sake, but never tools for selfish men. 117-2t ANNIE M. TAYLOX.
